Corps Announces Changes at Ives Run Recreation Area

Tioga, Pa.- The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Tioga-Hammond and Cowanesque Lakes announces recent changes at the Ives Run Recreation Area, Hammond Lake. To reduce maintenance costs, the south (Holiday) end of the Railroad Grade trail has been rerouted around Hills Creek. The entrance to the trail is located further west on the Hills Creek Road, near the new parking lot.

Also, effective November 1 through December 10, 2005, the Ives Run Campground will offer 32 camping sites available on a first-come, first-served basis. Sites at Pine Camp will cost $10 per night and fees, cash or checks, can be paid in advance at an honor vault at the entrance to the camp. There will be no utility hook-ups available, but a vault comfort station will be open. All campground rules and regulations apply.

For information regarding these and other recreational opportunities at Tioga-Hammond and Cowanesque Lakes, please call (570) 835-5281, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., or visit the Visitor Information Center at the Ives Run Recreation Area.
